City of Janesville.

Monday Evening, Nov. 11, 1861.

Official Paper of the City.

Forever float that standard sheet!

Where breathes the foe but falls before us?

With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,

And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Opening Cotton Ports.

The proposition to open a port in the cotton regions of the south, say at Beaufort, S. C., and to trade only with Union men, looks like a very absurd thing. In the first place there are no Union men there. It may be that the rebels will be willing to pretend to be Union men for the sake of disposing of their cotton, but we fail to perceive how supplying them with money, will help put down the rebellion. The fiction of a Union man in South Carolina is too transparent to be looked upon seriously. Can war and commerce exist at the same time? Can there be at once peace and hostility with the same people? If our fleet has only gone on this errand, our soldiers and sailors will have died in vain in planting the flag at Beaufort. If this is the object, we need not look for strikes at Charleston or Savannah. If trade in cotton is to be invited and accepted, the war must and will cease in that region.

If opening cotton ports be the policy, why should it be confined to the Atlantic coast? If the measure is to benefit one portion of the country, we insist that all others should participate in it. Memphis on the Mississippi ought also to be opened as a port of trade. If the manufacturers of Old England and New England are permitted to purchase cotton with money, why should not we of the northwest be allowed to buy and pay for it in wheat, pork and corn? We are losing twenty-five cents on every dollar's worth of produce now sold, in consequence of the blockade of the Mississippi. If the cotton manufacturers need relief, so do the wheat raisers as much. Should this be granted, and a port of trade opened on the Mississippi with the quasi-rebels, that would terminate the war in that quarter; and thus with two or three ports trading in cotton, hostilities would cease. But would the federal authority be extended over the region carrying on this commerce? We do not see that this is a part of the programme, and if not, it looks to us like a practical acknowledgement of the northern confederacy.

AN ELECTIONEERING APPEAL.

The morning of the election the Milwaukee Bee Bote published the following base and lying appeal to local prejudices:

"Harvey and his set have sold Milwaukee to Chicago. The Northwestern road is principally his. Chicago money works for the republican ticket! Chicago has not forgotten the valuable services of Mr. Harvey. He owes his nomination to Chicago influences, and the Chicago and Northwestern road strives its utmost to elect him. Black republicanism in the state offices is the sworn enemy of Milwaukee. What Milwaukeean will vote for such a ticket?"

The News, apparently determined to lose no ground in the contest for baseness, published a similar appeal the same day. Do not such efforts account for the heavy asserted "democratic" majority in Milwaukee?

The falsehood of this charge against Mr. Harvey is apparent in the vote along the line of the Northwestern road. Appleton, the home of Perry Smith, gave a less vote for Harvey than Randall two years ago, and Oshkosh did not increase its vote. The city of Fond du Lac gave Harvey less than Randall, and the county completely "pertered" out. Watertown gave Hobart 374 majority, and Ferguson only 50 less—a result to be easily accounted for in the fluctuating vote of that city.

The Chicago Tribune says that the battle of Belmont had "an unfortunate termination" for the Union forces. Had Gen. Fremont (says the Wisconsin) been the commanding general of the western department at the time, though 200 miles distant, he would have been charged with this disastrous blunder. At the time, the Tribune had a favorite general of its own stamp at the head of the western department.

SEQUENTURED.—Shortly before his retirement, Gen. Scott obtained positive information that his entire estate, all of which is situated in Virginia, has been seized and sequestered for the benefit of the so-called confederate government.

The return our government makes for such services is to carefully protect the estates of the rebel generals, or pay for any injury inflicted upon them. For an illustration see the policy adopted towards Gen. Lee's mansion on Arlington Heights, and the order to the provost marshal of Alexandria to refrain from any interference with the rebel property in that city.

We make some additions and change our table according to the figures in the Milwaukee Sentinel, which says that it has, to be on the safe side, given the democratic candidates all claimed for them, and put our own majorities at the lowest figures.—On these figures we have (says the Sentinel) a majority of 351. The counties yet to be heard from gave Randall a majority of 936. From the indications thus far, we think our chance is better to gain than to lose in those counties. If we hold our own the majority will be 1287. But should we lose in the same ratio as heretofore, we still have a majority.

The changes thus made reduce Harvey's vote from our table of Saturday 1500, and increase Ferguson's 1300. We see no good reason to doubt the election of Harvey and the republican union state ticket, except the lieutenant governor, Mr. Allen having taken enough votes to defeat Mr. Salomon.

TRAFFIC ABOUT THE MONEY.—It is said that the agents sent by this state to Washington to obtain the money advanced by the state in organizing the regiments for the war have returned without it, and consequently the state treasury is "short." It is also said that our agents were informed that Mr. Eddy, of Springfield, Ill., had been entrusted with the duty of examining all such accounts, and settling them.—Agents were then sent to Mr. Eddy with the accounts, but Mr. Eddy was found to be so securely bound up in red tape by the authorities who had appointed him, that he could do nothing. Gov. Randall, it is reported, will start for Washington to-day, to expedite the payment. The delay in the departure of the 11th regiment has arisen from this cause.

ONE GOOD MAN LEFT.—Widow Triplett, of rebellious sympathies, living near Alexandria, applied to General Heintzelman for eight slaves, alleged to be within his lines. She backed her request with a penal bond pledging herself not to sell them south.—General Heintzelman replied that, although he was no lawyer, common sense told him that a bond without consideration was void and could not be enforced, and that, whether this was so or not, he was not a nigger catcher, and it was not his business to surrender fugitives who strayed into his camp.

THE MADISON ARGUS does a sorry figure manufacturing calumnies against Fremont, beside the audacious canards of the Chicago Tribune. Better give it up, John Y. Your mind is not adapted to this business.

ASSEMBLYMEN IN JEFFERSON COUNTY.—The assemblymen in Jefferson are equally divided politically, the 1st district returning Peter Rogan, (dem.) by 249 majority; the 2d district, W. S. Green, (Union dem.) by about 300 majority; the 3d district, W. W. Reed, (Union republican) without opposition, and the 4th district, J. B. Crosby, (republican).

THE ASSEMBLYMEN elect from Milwaukee county are H. L. Palmer, George Abert, George K. Gregory, J. V. V. Platto, J. M. Stowell, Adam Finger, Edward Daley, P. J. Shumway, and L. Semmann. These are all democrats, and is a gain of two democrats from last year.

ANOTHER ARREST.—Mathew M. Maury, of New Orleans, was arrested in Cleveland on the 7th by the U. S. marshal. His trunk contains a large number of letters to parties in the rebel states.

YANKEE COOKERY.—A Washington correspondent says the New England regiments "display much inventive genius in their improvised culinary arrangements, often eclipsing the famed arrangements of Sayer, or the proposed improvements of the sanitary commission. Our Yankee friends never fail to construct ovens in banks of earth, or of stoves, in which they bake their Sunday dish of "pork and beans," and their messes revel in chowders, fried doughnuts, pumpkin pie, fish balls and other home delicacies. For camp fare, commend me to a regiment from down east."

THANKSGIVING IN MASSACHUSETTS.—Gov. Andrew has appointed Thursday, the 21st of November, as a day of thanksgiving and praise, it being the anniversary of the day of signing the original compact of government on board the May Flower.

HUNTINGTON, THE FORGER, PARDONED.—This individual was, a few days since, pardoned by Governor Morgan, and released from the state prison, but immediately afterwards arrested on a civil suit for $20,000, and committed to Westchester county jail. "Out of the frying-pan into the fire."

A HANDSOME VOTE.—The town of Columbus, Columbia county, the residence of J. T. Lewis, gave Harvey 349 votes and Ferguson 7. Lewis received every vote cast.

OFFICIAL UNION PASSENGER DEPT.

Last Night's Report.

Fr. MONROE, Nov. 9. Passengers by the Old Point boat say that the Richmond Enquirer of Friday afternoon contains a dispatch from Charleston, dated Wednesday, simply announcing that the federal troops had landed at two points, and were marching inland. Officers by the flag of truce refused all information, but the wheelman told a sailor that Beaufort was in possession of federal troops and the national flag flying from the court house. The reporter says—I have just learned from the flag of truce that our forces stormed and captured two forts at Beaufort.

A Washington date says that the non-receipt of news from the naval expedition from rebel sources is considered at the navy department as evidence that a satisfactory result has been attained.

To-Day's Report.

MORNING DESPATCHES.

MADISON, Nov. 11th.

The 11th regiment was to have left tomorrow, (Tuesday), but its departure is again postponed. Time not given.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.

Gen. Scott's staff have been assigned as follows:—Col. Cullum to the staff of Maj. Gen. Halleck, with the rank of brigadier general; Col. Van Rensselaer has succeeded Col. Scott as inspector general; Colonel Hamilton on the staff of McClellan; Maj. Wright takes command of his regiment. Among the recently appointed brigadier generals are Morgan, Ohio, and Colonel Phillips St. George Cook, who recently brought hither his cavalry troops from Utah. He is a native and appointed from Virginia.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 10. Full returns of the Maryland election show that one rebel senator, and six delegates elected. The house stands 68 Union and six rebels. The senate stands 13 Union and eight rebels. Seven of the latter are of the number who held over and six of them represent strong Union counties.—Bradford's majority is about 30,000.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.

Herald's dispatch.—The government has issued permits to parties in Rhode Island to trade with loyalists on the southern coast. Vessels are fitted out for that purpose with supplies of various kinds, among which is salt, clothing and other articles of necessity which is expected will be exchanged for cotton. This is a new feature of government policy and may lead to important results. Senator Simmons, of Rhode Island, has been the principal agent in this matter. It is said that the principal vessel now fitting out, will also follow the expedition, and as soon as an opening is made, and a permanent footing obtained in South Carolina or Georgia, cargoes of cotton will be at once shipped to Liverpool and other points. This is a very important movement and has the full sanction of the government.

Major General Halleck has been assigned to the command of the department of the west, and General Buell to Kentucky.—The selection of Halleck was made at the suggestion of McClellan, and it cannot be long before the present condition of things in that state, under this able and experienced general, will assume a satisfactory condition.

World's dispatch.—Special orders have been issued directing the punishment of death to be visited on any soldier found sleeping on his post.

There is no little indignation felt here in official circles at the attempt of Gen. Fremont's friends to intimidate the government by the fabrication of dispatches, public and private, respecting the state of feeling in the western army, not warranted by facts. If the report which reached here, to the effect, that the government at one time had the alternative of the western army, unless Gen. Fremont was retained in command. It has been found that Fremont's friends have been managing telegraph and newspaper correspondents in the camp. The correspondent of the St. Louis Republican is known to be the author of most of the bogus dispatches, and it seems that he has been riding and living at the government expense for some time. It is said that he will be arrested.

Times dispatch.—Government has resolved to release on parole 250 prisoners, part of those captured at Hatteras, to proceed south on similar mission. If they succeed 250 Union prisoners now in the south will soon be returned to us, and the principle and manner of a full exchange of prisoners will be fully established.

The government is about to send money, clothing and comforts to Union prisoners in the south, if the confederates co-operate in the measure. An answer to such proposition will be had from Richmond in a few days.

Tribune's dispatch.—The government has contracted for the manufacture of a large number of the best Springfield rifled guns and also breech loading, with conical bullets, for use with the new rifle. This country. These guns, with conical bullets authorized abroad for immediate use, will soon give a sufficient supply for all present and the future wants of the army. Gen. Heintzelman, from the left wing of the army, confirms the report that the rebel troops are leaving the lower Potomac and moving southward, seemingly to South Carolina and Georgia, which is the looked for effect of a descent on the southern coast.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

Fort Monroe, Nov. 10.

The steamship S. R. Spaulding arrived from Hatteras Inlet this forenoon with the 21st Indiana regiment. A deserter who reached the Inlet in a small boat, stated that news had been received on the mainland of the taking of two rebel forts at Port Royal, and the landing of a large federal force. Beaufort has also been taken by our troops. No particulars have arrived, but the facts correspond with those received from Norfolk by a flag of truce. Great excitement prevailed on the arrival of the news at Norfolk. From the same source we have a rumor that the road above Beaufort has fallen into the possession of our troops, with an immense quantity of stores.

Five deserters who reached Newport News this morning, say the rebels on James river are in consternation, and also bring the improbable rumor that our troops had advanced up the railroad as far as Charleston.

Scott was in company with the Union. The captain of the Union force was lost, having suddenly disappeared.

Nothing is known concerning the rumored loss of the Ocean Express. There are rumors of three federal vessels having run ashore.

New York, Nov. 11.

The Tribune's special from Fort Monroe states that the rebels had told the officers of the Albatross that two vessels of the fleet were ashore above Charleston, and others below Fort Hatteras. No names given. Lieut. Lowry, of the Spaulding, reports on Wednesday morning having heard heavy firing south of Hatteras, and news was received that the French war steamer Ponsa was on Ocracoke beach, and the gun boat Underwriter was sent to her, but could not get within three miles of her. At 11 o'clock the same day the French steamer was seen at her gun, and it is supposed was abandoned. This is another French steamer that had been in the neighborhood some time, but repelled all intercourse with our ships of war.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 11.

An officer of the 20th Indiana regiment from Hatteras Inlet, has arrived here and says he had a long conversation with the party who brought the news to Hatteras.—He was not a deserter, but a citizen and is a man of considerable intelligence, who had crossed the sound at the risk of his life to bring news to us. The officer reports that his conversation corresponds exactly with what has already been transmitted by telegraph. Outside of this statement there is a report that in taking Beaufort a large part of the town was burnt.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 11.

Special dispatches to the Inquirer, dated Fort Monroe, says that two fishing smacks took refuge under the guns of the Cumberland. The captains were Baltimoreans.—They reported they had been fishing in the Chesapeake; when they left the report was current that Charleston had been attacked, and on Friday last several rebel regiments were sent south from James and York rivers. The embarkation took place in great haste. The shores of James river were almost deserted.

MONTREAL, Nov. 11.

The brig Deshaie, at Farther Point, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, signalled for a pilot and sent the following message ashore: Nov. 7th, picked up the North British's boat No. 2, with 17 of the crew and one passenger aboard.

The North British is ashore on Munguan Island. These are all the particulars yet received, but full details will be obtained on the arrival of the brig at Quebec.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.

Col. Frank P. Blair leaves here to-day for Missouri to rejoin his regiment.

The Markets.

New York, Nov. 11.

Flour without decided change; sales 9,000 bbls. 5.50s/60s upper western, 5.70s/5.95s common to medium extra western. Wheat market a shade better; sales 9,000 bush. 1.22s/1.25s Milwaukee club, 1.25s/1.27s amber Iowa, 1.32s/1.35s winter red western.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 11.

Flour dull. Wheat dull and little doing; sales light at 73s/74s No. one in store, 72s/73s for No. 2 and 1 delivered.

HOW THE REBELS BOAST AND MANAGE.

"The public have little conception of the wiles and artifices which a powerful and unscrupulous foe will resort to to carry out its purposes. The rebel leaders have so much at stake, and they know so well the fate that awaits them at the hands of deceived millions if they fail, that they resort to the most desperate expedients to accomplish the 'foreign recognition' they are constantly promising to their obedient white slaves of the south.

A gentleman of his city had occasion recently to visit Montreal, and while there stopped at the Donegan Hotel. He found the house filled with jubilant secessionists, who loudly boasted that ere long France and England would recognize the confederate government, and that the recent increase of the English force in Canada was a part of the proposed programme. The gentleman in question, a prominent merchant in this city, being a foreigner and speaking with a slight accent, heard more of their plans than they would have been willing to divulge to one who was supposed to be a 'Yankee and Lincolnite.' To his surprise he found that a nephew of Beauregard's received letters from the general every two days, addressed to the president of the Bank of Montreal; others of the same kind received letters with equal regularity. He became well acquainted with Gen. Magruder, who with his family, had passed into Canada without the slightest difficulty. There was one man there who was looked upon with suspicion by the southerners.

When the New Yorker reached Rensselaer's Point, on his return, this person politely informed him that he must search him, as he seemed to have been intimate with the southern rebels at Montreal. This official, perusal of a bright look, previous, might have discovered the rebel Magruder, who quietly left the cars before they reached the Point, and in company with an ex-governor of Rhode Island, rode off in a light wagon. Our informant met Magruder in this city, and says that he boasted that their generals knew every plan of our cabinet, and no power under heaven could prevent them from getting all the details they wished. The general remarked with great emphasis—"We have our friends in all the departments at Washington, and we know how to keep them there."

Our informant is a man of decided intelligence, and his statements are worthy of trust. He says that the southerners in Montreal have abundance of money, have their families with them, and they get all the luxuries they want from this city.—They boast they can outbid the federal government in Europe, and that very large advances have been made by nominal British sympathizers, who long to see the republic torn up by the roots. They instanced the case of the Bermuda as an evidence of what they intended to do, and said that the successful entrance of such a vessel into the port of Savannah was worth a great victory on the field to them. Much of this is mere boasting, but it has its effect.—N. Y. Evening Post.

NOT A GOOD PROPHET.

The London Times is daily instructing its readers that the loyalists of the United States will find it impossible to conquer the rebels. This is in the old strain of the Times regarding this country. It constantly predicted the defeat of the U. S. army in the war with Mexico. On the 31st of August, 1848, it said in a leader on our Mexican war: "We have all along foreseen that the conduct of this war would present almost insuperable military difficulties, and that the cry of marching to Mexico, investing the principal cities, and occupying the country was the mere dream of an ignorant populace. Without roads, without local supplies, with little water and a great deal of disease, the march of an American army into the heart of Mexico would lead to its destruction."

DEATH OF A WISCONSIN SOLDIER.—On Friday Private Buxton, Third Wisconsin Volunteers, wounded in the action at Harpers Ferry, died in the (Wisconsin) hospital, at Frederick, Maryland. A Minnie ball had entered the right shoulder, passed in front of the shoulder blade, and shattered one of the ribs near the spinal column, where its progress was checked.

Departure of the 10th Regiment.

To-day Wisconsin sends another first-class regiment to the seat of war. The 10th, Col. Chapin, left for Kentucky this forenoon. They number almost 1,000 men, and are equipped in the best of style throughout. The following is a complete list of the officers and companies:

COMMISSIONED STAFF.
Colonel—Alfred R. Chapin.
Lieut. Colonel—Joshua J. Guppy.
Major—John J. McMynn.
Adjutant—William A. Collins.
Quartermaster—Benton McConnell.
Surgeon—Solon Marks.
Assistant Surgeon—Robert Mitchell.
Second Asst. Surgeon—Jas. T. Reeves.
NON-COMMISSIONED STAFF.
Sergeant Major—Chester A. Bendick.
Drum Major—James E. Underwood.
Q. M. Sergeant—James S. White.
Commissary Sergt.—Robert L. Howell.
Leader of Band—Horace B. Loomis.

COMPANY ORGANIZATION.

Co. A—Walworth Co. Guards—Capt. Henry O. Johnson, 1st Lieut., Harris J. Harrington, 2d Lieut., Robert Harkness.
Co. B—Lyon Guards—Capt. Jacob W. Roby, 1st Lieut., James E. Adams, 2d Lieut., Samuel W. Herrick.
Co. C—Menasha Guards—Capt. Andrew J. Richardson, 1st Lieut., F. W. Perry, 2d Lieut., Samuel L. Hart.
Co. D—Fremont Rifles—Capt. O. E. Twogood, 1st Lieut., F. L. Kennan, 2d Lieut., George W. Marsh.
Co. E—Capt. John H. Ely, 1st Lieut., R. Kohledorf, 2d Lieut., G. M. West.
Co. F—Grant Co. Patriots—Capt. Wm. H. Palmer, 1st Lieut., Ed. D. Lowry 2d Lieut., Amos C. Brown, Jr.
Co. G—Jackson Co. Rifles—Capt. William Moore, 1st Lieut., L. B. Brewer, 2d Lieut., Silas A. Wilcox.
Co. H—Juneau Co. Rifles—Capt. Duncan McKelhan, 1st Lieut., Ingersol George, 2d Lieut., R. H. Spencer.
Co. I—Grant Co. Sixth—Capt. Caleb F. Overton, 1st Lieut., Harvey Fairchild, 2d Lieut., John Small.
Co. K—Waupun Rifles—Capt. Edward Hillier, 1st Lieut., Lemman B. Hills, 2d Lieut., Chas. H. Ford.

They were escorted to the depot by officers of the 9th regiment, the American Band, the Milwaukee Light Infantry, a number of citizens on horseback, a detachment from the 9th regiment, and others.

They made a splendid appearance as they passed through the city, and thousands manifested an intense interest in their departure, by appearing at windows and doors, crowding the sidewalks, and blocking up the side streets as they proceeded on their march.

The material is superior to that of any regiment which has left the city. They go directly to Kentucky.—Wisconsin, of Saturday.

LOUISVILLE LADIES.—The loyal ladies of Louisville are organizing to provide winter comforts for the loyal soldiers of Kentucky. They have resolved that they accept the duty of providing for the comforts of the soldiers in the loyal camps of Kentucky, and that to the extent of their ability they will guard the champions of Kentucky and of the Union from the ills of winter and the diseases of camp by furnishing them with blankets, socks, and other means of warmth, and will supply sick soldiers with all they want, and entertain and instruct them with books, magazines and other reading matter. Kentucky ladies like these will never take the hands of traitors.

GEN. SCOTT'S PAY.—The current monthly pay, subsistence and allowance of Lieut. General Scott were, and by order of the President continued to be, while he is upon the retired list, as follows:
Pay, per month..... $270
Rations, per month..... 360
Allowance for servants, per month..... 90
Allowance for horses, per month..... 60
Total..... $780
—which makes an annual income of $9,360.

In a speech made by John C. Breckinridge in the United States senate, on the occasion of moving from the old senate chamber to the new one, he said: "Is there an American who will divide his country's laws, pervert her constitution, or alienate her people? If there be such a man, let his memory descend to posterity, laden with the execrations of all mankind!"

There is such a man, and his name is John C. Breckinridge, and even as he hath spoken, so be it.

ALITERATION.—The greatest triumph of English aliteration, according to the London Quarterly, is the following line, composed by a young lady in the year 1800, on the occasion of a gentleman planting a lane with lilacs:

Let lovely lilacs line Lee's lonely lane, in which not only every word but every syllable begins with the same letter.

This kind of composition—"aliteration" is a simple enough "when you get the hang of the school house." With leisure, we could string together entire gorges, and huculies after the fashion of Lee's lovely, lipped, lively, lulling line. As for example:
Let lovely lilacs line Lee's lonely lane;
Plant poplars, popples, poppies, palmy purple plums;
Rarest roses reaching round rich rows;
Grass green grass, growing glorious green;
Grazing geese, geese, get gold gilt, grain-grained green;
Watch weeds; with wains wheel wood when winds when winds
When winds wafted west with whirling whing.

Opening Cotton Ports.

The proposition to open a port in the cotton regions of the south, say at Beaufort, S. C., and to trade only with Union men, looks like a very absurd thing. In the first place there are no Union men there. It may be that the rebels will be willing to pretend to be Union men for the sake of disposing of their cotton, but we fail to perceive how supplying them with money, will help put down the rebellion. The fiction of a Union man in South Carolina is too transparent to be looked upon seriously. Can war and commerce exist at the same time? Can there be at once peace and hostility with the same people? If our fleet has only gone on this errand, our soldiers and sailors will have died in vain in planting the flag at Beaufort. If this is the object, we need not look for strikes at Charleston or Savannah. If trade in cotton is to be invited and accepted, the war must and will cease in that region.

If opening cotton ports be the policy, why should it be confined to the Atlantic coast? If the measure is to benefit one portion of the country, we insist that all others should participate in it. Memphis on the Mississippi ought also to be opened as a port of trade. If the manufacturers of Old England and New England are permitted to purchase cotton with money, why should not we of the northwest be allowed to buy and pay for it in wheat, pork and corn? We are losing twenty-five cents on every dollar's worth of produce now sold, in consequence of the blockade of the Mississippi. If the cotton manufacturers need relief, so do the wheat raisers as much. Should this be granted, and a port of trade opened on the Mississippi with the quasi-rebels, that would terminate the war in that quarter; and thus with two or three ports trading in cotton, hostilities would cease. But would the federal authority be extended over the region carrying on this commerce? We do not see that this is a part of the programme, and if not, it looks to us like a practical acknowledgement of the southern confederacy.

AN ELECTIONEERING APPEAL.—The morning of the election the Milwaukee See Bote published the following base and lying appeal to local prejudices:

"Harvey and his set have sold Milwaukee to Chicago. The Northwestern road is principally his work. Chicago money works for the republican ticket! Chicago has not forgotten the valuable services of Mr. Harvey. He owes his nomination to Chicago influences, and the Chicago and Northwestern road strives its utmost to elect him. Black republicanism in the state offices is the sworn enemy of Milwaukee. What Milwaukeean will vote for such a ticket?"

The News, apparently determined to lose no ground in the contest for baseness, published a similar appeal the same day. Do not such efforts account for the heavy asserted "democratic" majority in Milwaukee?

The falsehood of this charge against Mr. Harvey is apparent in the vote along the line of the Northwestern road. Appleton, the home of Perry Smith, gave a less vote for Harvey than Randall two years ago, and Oshkosh did not increase its vote. The city of Fond du Lac gave Harvey less than Randall, and the county completely "petered" out. Watertown gave Hobart 374 majority, and Ferguson only 65 less—a result to be easily accounted for in the fluctuating vote of that city.

The Chicago Tribune says that the battle of Belmont had an "unfortunate termination" for the Union forces. Had Gen. Fremont (says the Wisconsin) been the commanding general of the western department at the time, though 200 miles distant, he would have been charged with this disastrous blunder. At the time, the Tribune had a favorite general of its own stamp at the head of the western department.

SCOTTSBURGH.—Shortly before his retirement, Gen. Scott obtained positive information that his entire estate, all of which is situated in Virginia, has been seized and sequestered for the benefit of the so-called confederate government.

The return our government makes for such services is to carefully protect the estates of the rebel generals, or pay for any injury inflicted upon them. For an illustration see the policy adopted towards Gen. Lee's mansion on Arlington Heights, and the order to the provost marshal of Alexandria to refrain from any interference with the rebel property in that city.

The New York World is considered the special organ of the war department. It is not surprising, therefore, that its special at Washington, should display its spleen at Gen. Fremont. But Mr. Cameron will hardly dare to arrest the correspondent of the St. Louis Republican for transmitting intelligence of the indignation felt by the army at the removal of Fremont, as is threatened. While the telegraph has been used for weeks to traduce the latter, one dispatch at least can be afforded in his favor.

Reported Majorities.

We make some additions and change our table according to the figures in the Milwaukee Sentinel, which says that it has, to be on the safe side, given the democratic candidates all claimed for them, and put our own majorities at the lowest figures.—On these figures we have (says the Sentinel) a majority of 351. The counties yet to be heard from gave Randall a majority of 936. From the indications thus far, we think our chance is better to gain than to lose in those counties. If we hold our own the majority will be 1287. But should we lose in the same ratio as heretofore, we still have a majority.

The changes thus made reduce Harvey's vote from our table of Saturday 1600, and increase Ferguson's 1300. We see no good reason to doubt the election of Harvey and the republican union state ticket, except the lieutenant governor, Mr. Allen having taken enough votes to defeat Mr. Salomon.

TRouble ABOUT THE MONEY.—It is said that the agents sent by this state to Washington to obtain the money advanced by the state in organizing the regiments for the war have returned without it, and consequently the state treasury is "short." It is also said that our agents were informed that Mr. Eddy, of Springfield, Ill., had been entrusted with the duty of examining all such accounts, and settling them.—Agents were then sent to Mr. Eddy with the accounts, but Mr. Eddy was found to be so securely bound up in red tape by the authorities who had appointed him, that he could do nothing. Gov. Randall, it is reported, will start for Washington to-day, to expedite the payment. The delay in the departure of the 11th regiment has arisen from this cause.

ONE GOOD MAN LEFT.—Widow Triplett, of rebellious sympathies, living near Alexandria, applied to General Heintzelman for eight slaves, alleged to be within his lines. She backed her request with a penal bond pledging herself not to sell them south.—General Heintzelman replied that, although he was no lawyer, common sense told him that a bond without consideration was void and could not be enforced, and that, whether this was so or not, he was not a nigger catcher, and it was not his business to surrender fugitives who strayed into his camp.

THE Madison Argus cuts a sorry figure manufacturing calumnies against Fremont, beside the audacious canards of the Chicago Tribune. Better give it up, John Y. Your mind is not adapted to that business.

ASSEMBLYMEN IN JEFFERSON COUNTY.—The assemblymen in Jefferson are equally divided politically, the 1st district returning Peter Rogan, (dem.) by 243 majority; the 2d district, W. S. Green, (Union dem.) by about 300 majority; the 3d district, W. W. Reed, (Union republican) without opposition; and the 4th district, J. B. Crosby, (republican.)

THE assemblymen elect from Milwaukee county are H. L. Palmer, George Albert, George K. Gregory, J. V. V. Platto, J. M. Stowell, Adam Finger, Edward Daley, P. J. Shumway, and L. Semmann. These are all democrats, and is a gain of two democrats from last year.

ANOTHER ARREST.—Mathew M. Marry, of New Orleans, was arrested in Cleveland on the 7th by the U. S. marshal. His trunk contains a large number of letters to parties in the rebel states.

YANKEE COOKERY.—A Washington correspondent says the New England regiments "display much inventive genius in their improvised culinary arrangements, often eclipsing the famed arrangements of Soyer, or the proposed improvements of the sanitary commission. Our Yankee friends never fail to construct ovens in banks of earth, or of stones, in which they bake their Sunday dish of "pork and beans," and their messes revel in chowders, fried doughnuts, pumpkin pie, fish balls and other home delicacies. For camp fare, commend me to a regiment from down east."

THANKSGIVING IN MASSACHUSETTS.—Gov. Andrew has appointed Thursday, the 21st of November, as a day of thanksgiving and praise, it being the anniversary of the day of signing the original compact of government on board the May Flower.

HUNTINGTON, THE FORGER, PAROLED.—This individual was, a few days since, pardoned by Governor Morgan, and released from the state prison, but immediately afterwards arrested on a civil suit for $20,000, and committed to Westchester county jail. "Out of the frying-pan into the fire."

A HANDSOME VOTE.—The town of Columbus, Columbia county, the residence of J. T. Lewis, gave Harvey 349 votes and Ferguson 7. Lewis received every vote cast. On the regular democratic ticket, Billings had 2 votes, Miller 4, Orton 1, Vollmar 4, and Crilly 3.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

Last Night's Report.

FR. MONROE, Nov. 9. Passengers by the Old Point boat say that the Richmond Enquirer of Friday afternoon contains a dispatch from Charleston, dated Wednesday, simply announcing that the federal troops had landed at two points, and were marching inland. Officers by the flag of truce refused all information, but the wheelman told a sailor that Beaufort was in possession of federal troops and the national flag flying from the court house. The reporter says—I have just learned from the flag of truce that our forces stormed and captured two forts at Beaufort.

A Washington date says that the non-receipt of news from the naval expedition from rebel sources is considered at the navy department as evidence that a satisfactory result has been attained.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DISPATCHES.

MADISON, Nov. 11th. The 11th regiment was to have left tomorrow, (Tuesday), but its departure is again postponed. Time not given.

Gen. Scott's staff have been assigned as follows: Col. Callum to the staff of Maj. Gen. Hallcock, with the rank of brigadier general; Col. Van Rensselaer has succeeded Col. Scott as inspector general; Colonel Hamilton on the staff of McClellan; Maj. Wright takes command of his regiment. Among the recently appointed brigadier generals are Morgan, of Ohio, and Colonel Philip S. George Cook, who recently brought his cavalry troops from Utah. He is a native "and appointed from Virginia."

BALTIMORE, Nov. 10. Full returns of the Maryland election show that one rebel senator, and six delegates elected. The house stands 68 Union and six rebels. The senate stands 13 Union and eight rebels. Seven of the latter are of the number who held over and six of them represent strong Union counties.—Bradford's majority is about 30,000.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9. Herald's dispatch.—The government has issued permits to parties in Rhode Island to trade with loyalists on the southern coast. Vessels are fitted out for this purpose with supplies of various kinds, among which is salt clothing and other articles of necessity which it is expected will be exchanged for cotton. This is a new feature of government policy and may lead to important results. Senator Simmons, of Rhode Island, has been the principal mover in this matter. It may be these vessels, and others now fitting out, will also follow the expedition, and as soon as an opening is made, and a permanent footing obtained in South Carolina or Georgia, cargoes of cotton will at once be shipped to Liverpool and other ports. This is a very important movement and has the full sanction of the government. Major General Hallcock has been assigned to the command of the department of the west, and General Buell to Kentucky.—The selection of Hallcock was made at the suggestion of McClellan, and it cannot be long before the present condition of things in that state, under this able and experienced general, will assume a satisfactory condition.

World's dispatch.—Special orders have been issued directing the punishment of death to be visited on any soldier found sleeping on his post.

There is no little indignation felt here in official circles at the attempt of Gen. Fremont's friends to intimidate the government by the fabrication of dispatches, public and private, respecting the state of feeling in the western army, not warranted by facts. If the report which reached here be true, the government at one time had the alternative of the western army, unless Gen. Fremont was retained in command. It has been found that Fremont's friends have been managing telegraph and newspaper correspondents in the camp. The correspondent of the St. Louis Republican is known to be the author of most of the bogus dispatches, and it seems that he has been riding and living at the government expense for some time. It is said that he will be arrested.

Times dispatch.—Government has resolved to release on parole 250 prisoners, part of those captured at Hatteras, to be paroled south on similar manner. If they succeed 250 Union prisoners now in the south will soon be returned to us, and the principle and manner of a full exchange of prisoners will be fully established.

The government is about to send money, clothing and comforts to Union prisoners in the south, if the confederates co-operate in the measure. An answer to such proposition will be had from Richmond in a few days.

AFTERNOON DISPATCHES.

FORT MONROE, Nov. 10.

The steamship S. R. Spaulding arrived from Hatteras Inlet this forenoon with the 27th Indiana regiment. A deserter who reached the Inlet last night stated that news had been received on the mainland of the taking of two rebel forts at Port Royal, and the landing of a large federal force. Beaufort has also been taken by our troops. No particulars have arrived, but the facts correspond with those received from Norfolk by a flag of truce. Great excitement prevailed on the arrival of the news at Norfolk. From the same source we have a rumor that the road above Beaufort has fallen into the possession of our troops, with an immense quantity of stores.

Five deserters who reached Newport news this morning, say the rebels on James river are in consternation, and also bring the improbable rumor that our troops had advanced up the railroad as far as Charleston.

The French frigate Calabria was burned to the water's edge on Friday night off Hatteras. The hands were saved.

The captain of the gunboat Albatross reports that he discovered the Union ashore, on the 6th inst., about 80 miles eastward of Bogie Inlet, but in consequence of the heavy weather, had no communication with the shore until the following day, when he landed with a flag of truce and learned that a rebel captain that the Union was ashore in a sinking condition, on the 1st, and soon after broke in two. The crew, seventy-three in number, and fifteen horses, were saved. The men are prisoners at Fort Macon and Raleigh, N. C. Large quantities of stores were seen piled up on the beach. The steamer Winfield

Scott was in company with the Union. The captain of the Union force was lost, having suddenly disappeared.

Nothing is known concerning the rumored loss of the Ocean Express. There are rumors of three federal vessels having run ashore.

New York, Nov. 11.

The Tribune's special from Fort Monroe states that the rebels had told the officers of the Albatross that two vessels of the fleet were ashore above Charleston, and others below Fort Hatteras. No names given.

Philadelphia, Nov. 11.

An officer of the 20th Indiana regiment from Hatteras Inlet, has arrived here and says he had a long conversation with the party who brought the news to Hatteras. He was not a deserter, but a citizen and is a man of considerable intelligence, who had crossed the sound at the risk of his life to bring news to us. The officer reports that his conversation corresponds exactly with what has already been transmitted by telegraph. Outside of this statement there is a report that in taking Beaufort a large part of the town was burnt.

Philadelphia, Nov. 11.

Special dispatches to the Inquirer, dated Fort Monroe, says that two fishing smacks took refuge under the guns of the Cumberland. The captains were Baltimoreans. They reported they had been fishing in James river; when they left the report was current that Charleston had been attacked, and on Friday last several rebel regiments were sent south from James and York rivers. The embarkation took place in great haste. The shores of James river were all deserted.

Montreal, Nov. 11.

The brig Deshaier, at Farther Point, at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, signalled for a pilot and sent the following message ashore: Nov. 7th, picked up the North Briton's boat No. 2, with 17 of the crew and one passenger aboard.

The North Briton is ashore on Mungan Island. These are all the particulars yet received, but full details will be obtained on the arrival of the ship at Quebec.

Col. Frank P. Blair leaves here to-day for Missouri to rejoin his regiment.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.

Flour without decided change; sales 9,000 bbls. 5,500,500 super western, 5,708,595 common to medium extra western.

Wheat market as usual better; sales 8,000 bush. 1,224,25 Milwaukee club, 1,254,27 amber Iowa, 1,324,33 winter red western.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 11.

Flour dull. Wheat dull and little doing; sales high at 73 3/4 No. one in store, 72 3/4 for No. 2 and 1 delivered.

HOW THE REBELS BOAST AND MANAGE.

—The public have little conception of the wiles and artifices which a powerful and unscrupulous foe will resort to to carry out its purposes. The rebel leaders have so much at stake, and they know so well the state of affairs at the present time, that they resort to the most desperate expedients to accomplish the "foreign recognition" they are constantly promising to their obedient white slaves of the south.

A gentleman of his city had occasion recently to visit Montreal, and while there stopped at the Donegan Hotel. He found the house filled with jubilant secessionists, who loudly boasted that ere long France and England would recognize the confederate government, and that the recent invasion of the English forces in Canada was a part of the proposed programme. The gentleman in question, a prominent merchant in this city, being a foreigner and speaking with a slight accent, heard more of their plans than they would have been willing to divulge to one who was supposed to be a "Yankee and Lincolnite." To his surprise he found that a nephew of Beauregard's received letters from the general every two days, addressed to the president of the Bank of Montreal; others of the same kind received letters with equal regularity. He became well acquainted with Gen. Magruder, who with his family, had passed into Canada without the slightest difficulty. There was one man there who was looked upon with suspicion by the southerners.

When the New Yorker reached Rouse's Point, on his return, this person politely informed him that he must search him, as he seemed to have been intimate with the southern rebels at Montreal. This official, had kept a bright lookout previously, might have discovered the rebel Magruder, who quietly left the camp before we reached the Point, and in company with an ex-governor of Rhode Island, rode off in a light wagon. Our informant met Magruder in this city, and says that he boasted that their generals knew every plan of our cabinet, and no power under heaven could prevent them from getting all the details they wished. The general remarked with great emphasis—"We have our friends in all the departments at Washington, and we know how to keep them there."

Our informant is a man of decided intelligence, and his statements are worthy of credit. He says that the secessionists in Montreal have abundance of money, have their families with them, and they get all the luxuries they want from this city.—They boast they can outbid the federal government in Europe, and that very large advances have been made by nominal British sympathizers, who long to see the republic torn up by the roots. They instanced the case of the Bermuda as an evidence of what they intended to do, and said that the successful entrance of such a vessel into the port of Savannah was worth a great victory on the field to them. Much of this is mere boasting, but it has its effect.—N. Y. Evening Post.

NOT A GOOD PROPHECY.—The London Times is daily instructing its readers that the loyalists of the United States will find it impossible to conquer the rebels. This is in the old strain of the Times regarding this country. It constantly predicted the defeat of the U. S. army in the war with Mexico. On the 31st of August, 1846, it said in a leader on our Mexican war: "We have all along foreseen that the conduct of this war would present almost insuperable military difficulties, and that the cry of marching to Mexico, investing the principal cities, and occupying the country was the mere dream of an ignorant populace. Without roads, without local supplies, with little water and a great deal of disease, the march of an American army into the heart of Mexico would lead to its destruction."

DEATH OF A WISCONSIN SOLDIER.—On Friday Private Burton, Third Wisconsin Volunteers, wounded in the action at Harper's Ferry, died in the (Wisconsin) hospital, at Frederick, Maryland. A Minnie ball had entered the right shoulder, passed in front of the shoulder blade, and shattered one of the ribs near the spinal column, where its progress was checked.

Departure of the 10th Regiment.

To-day Wisconsin sends another first-class regiment to the seat of war. The 10th Col. Chapin, left for Kentucky this forenoon. They number almost 1,000 men, and are equipped in the best of style throughout. The following is a complete list of the officers and companies: COMPANY ORGANIZATION.

Colonel—Alfred R. Chapin. Lieutenant—Joshua J. Guppy. Major—John J. McMyun. Adjutant—William A. Collins. Quartermaster—Benton McConnell. Surgeon—Solon Marks. Assistant Surgeon—Robert Mitchell. Second Aid—Surgeon—Jas. T. Reeves. NON-COMMISSIONED STAFF.

Sergeant Major—Chester A. Bendick. Drum Major—James E. Underwood. Co. M. Sergeant—James S. White. Commissary Sergeant—Robert L. Howell. Leader of Band—Horace B. Loomis.

Co. A—Walworth Co. Guards—Capt. Henry O. Johnson, 1st Lieut. Harris J. Harrington, 2d Lieut. Robert Harkness. Co. B—Lyons Guards—Capt. Jacob W. Roby, 1st Lieut. James E. Adams, 2d Lieut. Samuel W. Herrick. Co. C—Manassah Guards—Capt. Andrew J. Richardson, 1st Lieut. F. W. Perry, 2d Lieut. Samuel L. Hart.

Co. D—Frontenac Rifles—Capt. O. E. Twogood, 1st Lieut. E. L. Kennan, 2d Lieut. George W. Marsh. Co. E—Capt. John H. Ely, 1st Lieut. R. Kohledorf, 2d Lieut. G. W. West. Co. F—Grant Co. Patriots—Capt. Wm. H. Palmer, 1st Lieut. Ed. D. Lowry 2d Lieut. Amistad C. Brown, Jr.

Co. G—Jackson Co. Rifles—Capt. William Moore, 1st Lieut. L. B. Brewer, 2d Lieut. Silas A. Wilcox. Co. H—Juneau Co. Rifles—Capt. Duncan McKuehn, 1st Lieut. Ingersoll George, 2d Lieut. R. H. Spicer.

Co. I—Grant Co. Sixty—Capt. Caleb F. Overton, 1st Lieut. Harvey Fairchilds, 2d Lieut. John Small. Co. K—Waupun Rifles—Capt. Edward Hillyer, 1st Lieut. Leaman B. Hills, 2d Lieut. Chas. H. Ford.

They were escorted to the depot by officers of the 9th regiment, the American Band, the Milwaukee Light Infantry, a number of citizens on horseback, a detachment from the 9th regiment, and others.

They made a splendid appearance as they passed through the city, and thousands manifested an intense interest in their departure, by appearing at windows and doors, crowding the sidewalks, and blocking up the side streets as they proceeded on their march.

The material is superior to that of any regiment which has left the city. They go directly to Kentucky.—Wisconsin, of Saturday.

LOUISVILLE LADIES.—The loyal ladies of Louisville are organizing to provide winter comforts for the loyal soldiers of Kentucky. They have resolved that they accept the duty of providing for the comforts of the soldiers in the loyal camps of Kentucky, and that to the extent of their ability they will guard the champions of Kentucky and of the Union from the ill of winter and the diseases of camp by furnishing them with blankets, socks, and other means of warmth, and will supply sick soldiers with all they need to sustain and instruct them with books, magazines and other reading matter. Kentucky ladies like these will never take the hands of traitors.

Gen. Scott's PAY.—The current monthly pay, subsistence and allowance of Lieut. General Scott were, and by order of the President continued to be, while he is upon the retired list, as follows: Pay, per month, $270. Rations, per month, 360. Allowance for servants, per month, 90. Allowance for horses, per month, 50. Total, $770.—which makes an annual income of $9,240.

In a speech made by John C. Breckinridge in the United States senate, on the occasion of moving from the old senate chamber to the new one, he said:—"Is there an American who will deride his country's laws, pervert her constitution, or alienate her people? If there be such a man, let his memory descend to posterity, laden with the execrations of all mankind." There is such a man, and his name is John C. Breckinridge, and even as he hath spoken, so be it.

ALLITERATION.—The greatest triumph of English alliteration, according to the London Quarterly, is the following line, composed by a young lady in the year 1800, on the occasion of a gentleman planting a lane with lilacs:

Let lovely lines like Lee's lonely lane, in which not only every word but every syllable begins with the same letter. This kind of composition—"alliteration's artful aid"—is simple enough "when you get the hang of the school house." With leisure, we could string together entire groves, and bucolics after the fashion of Lee's lovely, lippised, lively, lulling line. As for example: Let lovely lines like Lee's lonely lane; Plant poppies, poppies, poppies, poppy purple plums; Harvest red roses bearing radiant rich rills; Grow green grass, green grass, green grass, green grass; Grow great golden grain, grain, grain, grain; Watch weeds with wains wheel wheel when winds whiff wars; When wits westward went with whirling wings.—Louisville Journal.

Enlistments in Rock County.

The following figures will show, very nearly, what Rock county has already done towards putting down the rebellion, in the way of enlistment of soldiers from among her citizens. Although the figures are partially estimates, they will be found to be nearly correct. It will be seen that twelve companies of infantry have been formed in this county besides one battery of artillery, viz:

Capt. Clark's Co., 1st Reg't,	90
"Ely's, 2d Reg't,	110
"Wheeler's, 5th Reg't,	120
"Northrop's, 6th Reg't,	100
"Gordon's, 7th Reg't,	90
"Britton's, 8th Reg't,	85
"Ruger's, 13th Reg't,	110
"Woodman's, 13th Reg't,	90
"Stevens, 13th Reg't,	90
"Blake's, 13th Reg't,	90
"Norcross's, 13th Reg't,	90
"Randall's, 13th Reg't,	110
"Valley's Battery,	150
Other companies,	50
Enlisted in the regular army,	1,500

The proportion of Wisconsin in the call for 500,000 men is 20,000. This being the case, Rock has already furnished more than her share. If the balance of the state had done as well as we have already done, there would be 31,000 troops in the federal army from Wisconsin. We feel no little pride in this result. It shows that Old Rock is foremost in the state in supporting the patriotic cause. But she has not yet done. Her sons are daily enlisting, and we have no doubt, if need be, will furnish two thousand volunteers, who will do as good service as others in the army of the republic. Yes, more than this—if the government will restore Fremont to his command and authorize him, in connection with Gen. Jim Lane, to clear the Mississippi valley of traitors, proclaiming freedom to the slaves of rebels, confiscating their property, and hanging every one who refuses to lay down his arms at a certain day, we have not a doubt that our county would add another regiment to the number.

LECTURE BY HON. D. S. DICKINSON.—The Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson will give a lecture this week in Milwaukee on the "State of the Country." He is willing to repeat it in two or three other places in the state if the people desire it and are ready to pay for it. Many of our citizens would undoubtedly be glad to hear him. More particular information can be obtained by applying at this office. Shall the effort be made to obtain him?

SURGEONS.—Commissions have been issued to G. W. Eastman, Platteville, as surgeon of the 16th regiment.

To Geo. F. Huntington, Portage City, as surgeon of the 18th regiment.

To Chas. H. Lord, Watertown, assistant surgeon of 1st cavalry.

INTERESTING EXERCISES.—The Sabbath school connected with the Congregational church of this city presented a scene of unusual interest yesterday. Several of their number have enlisted in the regiment, that is being organized in Rock and Green counties. The remaining members of the school, having respect to the probable wants of the soldiers, had prepared for them very neat and tasty dressing-cases, filled with such things as absence from home renders indispensable to a young man. These were presented to them yesterday. The presentation was made in the presence of a large number of the congregation, and of the Presbyterian sabbath school, which came over to enjoy the scene, with songs by the school, and recitations and declamations by the juveniles, accompanied by brief remarks from the pastor of the church. The young gentlemen receiving the gifts responded well and briefly.

It was a very pleasant occasion, and one to be remembered by all who were present.

The Soldiers' Aid Society will meet at Mrs. Almira Clark's (west side) on Tuesday, Nov. 12th, at one o'clock P. M.

The "Mite Society" at the same place in the evening. MARIA F. CLARK, Secretary.

COMING HOME.—The Rocky Mountain News of the 29th says:—"By this morning's coach, Prof. Amson and Ned Powers took their departure for the states, to remain a couple of months. Our Janesville friends will be glad to see them. Mark is 'King bee' among the sign writers and fancy painters of this region, and he leaves some enduring specimens of his skill and taste scattered throughout Denver. We wish the boys a pleasant journey, a good time and a safe return."

Mark and Ned gratified their friends here this morning by a sight of their cheerful countenances. They look as if they had fared well, and just now are "flourishing" extensively.

FINE ARTS.—We would recommend our friends and readers to pay a visit to the new exhibition of engravings in Myers' block, next to McKee's. Among the collection will be found many pleasing subjects of art. The gallery will be sold at auction on Wednesday evening next. See advertisement.

MURDER OF O. J. WRIGHT.—Suspicion exists against the wife of Mr. Wright and a man named Bransman. They have been held for examination by the grand jury.

COL. RUGER.—Mr. Powell, editor of the Brodhead Reporter, has been to Washington, and visited the 3d regiment at Frederick, Md. Of Col. Ruger, he says: "The 3d is encamped near to the city on an excellent camping ground. They are in a good state of discipline. Colonel Ruger, of Janesville, is a thorough soldier, and a kind, efficient and exemplary man. He is a model for every colonel to pattern after. He is neither profane or intemperate, and his example has the effect to temper those who under different influences would be reckless. He has won the respect of the best citizens in Frederick, and has their co-operation. Traitors are becoming scarce within the sphere of his action."

We notice that a Sanitary Commission has been organized in Chicago for the northwest. From the manner of its introduction by its organ, we think it is intended more to give currency to slanders against Gen. Fremont, than to relieve sick and wounded soldiers. The best thing our people can do is to apply their donations to our own soldiers as far as possible, through societies of their own, and to rely upon Mr. Reid and his lady to distribute their charities at St. Louis, who have authority from the government for this purpose.

ASSISTANT SURGEONS.—Elisha Horton of Whitewater and S. L. Lloyd of Edgerton have been appointed assistant surgeons of the 13th regiment.

C. G. Russell is commissioned 1st lieutenant, and appointed quartermaster of 2d regiment Wisconsin cavalry.

Christopher Peterson reports 50 men at board and quarters at Black Earth, for the Scandinavian regiment.

COL. COBB.—The numerous friends of Col. Amasa Cobb, of the 5th regiment, will be gratified to learn that he has fully recovered from his late severe sickness, and is once more on duty, in command of his regiment.

FREE LUNCH DAILY.—G. Fritz will hereafter give a free lunch, containing good oyster soup, to his friends and customers, every morning, at his saloon on the east side of Main street, from ten till twelve o'clock. We think the public can hardly refrain from accepting very generally so liberal an offer.

COMPANIES ALL IN.—The last company of the 13th regiment came in Saturday evening, and went into camp. Several, or all of the companies, will require some filling up to make the maximum number.

About thirty Parrot guns are turned out at the West Point foundry now per week. Four hundred and fifty men are employed in the manufacture of these guns, as also in forming projectiles.

Four individuals, three saddlers and an oysterman, were recently sentenced to six months in the workhouse at New Orleans, by the mayor, because they were "politically if not morally dangerous and suspicious."

During the last three months, 12,400 tons of provisions have been shipped from New York to Washington in steam transports. This is exclusive of the amount carried in sailing vessels.

ELECTION ITEMS.—Green Lake county is reported by the Berlin Courier at about 350 majority for Harvey. It gave Randall 791.

The Prescott Journal says the majority on the Union state ticket, in Pierce county, is over 400. It was 201 for Randall.

The Manitowish Herald, of the 7th, thinks the Union state ticket has a majority in Manitowish county.

The Elkhorn Independent puts Harvey's majority at only 700 in Walworth county.

THE ELEVENTH REGIMENT.—The report from Madison this morning is that the time of the departure of the 11th regiment is uncertain. It will be safe to expect it here when it arrives.

IMMENSE SHIPMENTS.—The shipments from Milwaukee for the twenty-four hours ending Saturday afternoon at six o'clock, reached the enormous aggregate of two hundred and fifty thousand bushels. This is the largest amount ever shipped in one day from that port.

The potato rot is causing and havoc in many localities in western New York. Near Fredonia it has reduced the very large crop probably one-half. At Rochester the best sorts of potatoes show signs of decay, and are taken at a risk to buyers.

War Supplies!

The Chicago Evening Journal will be for sale regularly every morning.

Camp Towhee Paper and Envelopes, in great variety of styles. Also Camp Towhee Paper and Envelopes, with appropriate embellishments.

Infantry and Cavalry Tactics, Army Regulations, Manual for Officers constantly on hand. Also, Blank Books for Regiments and Officers, manufactured with neatness and despatch.

Forever float that standard sheet!
Where breathes the foe but falls before us?
With Freedom's soil beneath our feet,
And Freedom's banner streaming o'er us!

Opening Cotton Ports.

The proposition to open a port in the cotton regions of the south, say at Beaufort, S. C., and to trade only with Union men, looks like a very absurd thing. In the first place there are no Union men there. It may be that the rebels will be willing to pretend to be Union men for the sake of disposing of their cotton, but we fail to perceive how supplying them with money, will help put down the rebellion. The fiction of a Union man in South Carolina is too transparent to be looked upon seriously. Can war and commerce exist at the same time? Can there be at once peace and hostility with the same people? If our fleet has only gone on this errand, our soldiers and sailors will have died in vain in planting the flag at Beaufort. If this is the object, we need not look for strikes at Charleston or Savannah. If trade in cotton is to be invited and accepted, the war must and will cease in that region.

If opening cotton ports be the policy, why should it be confined to the Atlantic coast? If the measure is to benefit one portion of the country, we insist that all others should participate in it. Memphis on the Mississippi ought also to be opened as a port of trade. If the manufacturers of Old England and New England are permitted to purchase cotton with money, why should not we of the northwest be allowed to buy and pay for it in wheat, pork and corn? We are losing twenty-five cents on every dollar's worth of produce now sold, in consequence of the blockade of the Mississippi. If the cotton manufacturers need relief, so do the wheat raisers as much. Should this be granted, and a port of trade opened on the Mississippi by the quasi-rebels, that would terminate the war in that quarter; and thus with two or three ports trading in cotton, hostilities would cease. But would the federal authority be extended over the region carrying on this commerce? We do not see that this is a part of the programme, and if not, it looks to us like a practical acknowledgement of the southern confederacy.

AN ELECTIONEERING APPEAL.—The morning of the election the Milwaukee Sea Breeze published the following base and lying appeal to local prejudices:

"Harvey and his set have sold Milwaukee to Chicago. The Northwestern road is principally his work. Chicago money works for the republican ticket! Chicago has not forgotten the valuable services of Mr. Harvey. He owes his nomination to Chicago influences, and the Chicago and Northwestern road strikes his utmost to elect him. Black republicanism in the state offices is the sworn enemy of Milwaukee. What Milwaukeean will vote for such a ticket?"

The News, apparently determined to lose no ground in the contest for baseness, published a similar appeal the same day. Do not such efforts account for the heavy asserted "democratic" majority in Milwaukee? The falsehood of this charge against Mr. Harvey is apparent in the vote along the line of the Northwestern road. Appleton, the home of Perry Smith, gave a less vote for Harvey than Randall two years ago, and Oshkosh did not increase its vote. The city of Fond du Lac gave Harvey less than Randall, and the county completely "pestered" out. Watertown gave Hobart 374 majority, and Ferguson only 50 less—a result to be easily accounted for in the fluctuating vote of that city.

The Chicago Tribune says that the battle of Belmont had "an unfortunate termination" for the Union forces. Had Gen. Fremont (says the Wisconsin) been the commanding general of the western department at the time, though 200 miles distant, he would have been charged with the disastrous blunder. At the time, the Tribune had a favorite general of its own stamp at the head of the western department.

SEQUESTERED.—Shortly before his retirement, Gen. Scott obtained positive information that his entire estate, all of which is situated in Virginia, has been seized and sequestered for the benefit of the so-called confederate government.

The return our government makes for such services is to carefully protect the estates of the rebel generals, or pay for any injury inflicted upon them. For an illustration see the policy adopted towards Gen. Lee's mansion on Arlington Heights, and the order to the provost marshal of Alexandria to refrain from any interference with the rebel property in that city.

The New York World is considered the special organ of the war department. It is not surprising, therefore, that its special at Washington, should display its spleen at Gen. Fremont. But Mr. Cameron will hardly dare to arrest the correspondent of the St. Louis Republican for transmitting intelligence of the indignation felt by the army at the removal of Fremont, as is threatened. While the telegraph has been used for weeks to traduce the latter, one dispatch at least can be afforded in his favor.

Reported Majorities.
We make some additions and change our table according to the figures in the Milwaukee Sentinel, which says that it has, to be on the safe side, given the democratic candidates all claimed for them, and put our own majorities at the lowest figures.—On these figures we have (says the Sentinel) a majority of 351. The counties yet to be heard from gave Randall a majority of 935. From the indications thus far, we think our chance is better to gain than to lose in those counties. If we hold our own the majority will be 1287. But should we lose in the same ratio as heretofore, we still have a majority.

The changes thus made reduce Harvey's vote from our table of Saturday 1500, and increase Ferguson's 1300. We see no good reason to doubt the election of Harvey and the republican union state ticket, except the lieutenant governor, Mr. Allen having taken enough votes to defeat Mr. Salomon.

TROUBLE ABOUT THE MONEY.—It is said that the agents sent by this state to Washington to obtain the money advanced by the state in organizing the regiments for the war have returned without it, and consequently the state treasury is "short." It is also said that our agents were informed that Mr. Eddy, of Springfield, Ill., had been entrusted with the duty of examining all such accounts, and settling them.—Agents were then sent to Mr. Eddy with the accounts, but Mr. Eddy was found to be so securely bound up in red tape by the authorities who had appointed him, that he could do nothing. Gov. Randall, it is reported, will start for Washington to-day, to expediate the payment. The delay in the departure of the 11th regiment has arisen from this cause.

ONE GOOD MAN LEFT.—Widow Triplett, of rebellious sympathies, living near Alexandria, applied to General Heintzelman for eight slaves, alleged to be within his lines. She backed her request with a penal bond pledging herself not to sell them south.—General Heintzelman replied that, although he was no lawyer, common sense told him that a bond without consideration was void and could not be enforced, and that, whether this was so or not, he was not a nigger catcher, and it was not his business to surrender fugitives who strayed into his camp.

THE MADISON ARGUS cuts a sorry figure manufacturing calumnies against Fremont, beside the audacious canards of the Chicago Tribune. Better give it up, John Y. Your mind is not adapted to that business.

ASSEMBLYMEN IN JEFFERSON COUNTY.—The assemblymen in Jefferson are equally divided politically, the 1st district returning Peter Rogan, (dem.) by 249 majority; the 2d district, W. S. Green, (Union dem.) by about 300 majority; the 3d district, W. W. Reed, (Union republican) without opposition; and the 4th district, J. B. Crosby, (republican.)

The assemblymen elect from Milwaukee county are H. L. Palmer, George Albert, George C. Gregory, J. V. V. Platto, J. M. Stowell, Adam Finger, Edward Daley, P. J. Shumway, and L. Semmann. These are all democrats, and is a gain of two democrats from last year.

ANOTHER ARREST.—Matthew M. Maury, of New Orleans, was arrested in Cleveland on the 7th by the U. S. marshal. His trunk contains a large number of letters to parties in the rebel states.

YANKEE COOKERY.—A Washington correspondent says the New England regiments "display much inventive genius in their improvised culinary arrangements, often eclipsing the famed arrangements of Soyer, or the proposed improvements of the sanitary commission. Our Yankee friends never fail to construct ovens in banks of earth, or of stones, in which they bake their Sunday dish of "pork and beans," and their messes revel in chowders, fried doughnuts, pumpkin pie, fish balls and other home delicacies. For camp fare, commend me to a regiment from down east."

THANKSGIVING IN MASSACHUSETTS.—Gov. Andrew has appointed Thursday, the 21st of November, as a day of thanksgiving and praise, it being the anniversary of the day of signing the original compact of government on board the May Flower.

HUNTINGTON, THE FORGER, PARDONED.—This individual was, a few days since, pardoned by Governor Morgan, and released from the state prison, but immediately afterwards arrested on a civil suit for $20,000, and committed to Westchester county jail. "Out of the frying-pan into the fire."

A HANDSOME VOTE.—The town of Columbus, Columbia county, the residence of J. T. Lewis, gave Harvey 349 votes and Ferguson 7. Lewis received every vote cast.

On the regular democratic ticket, Billings had 2 votes, Miller 4, Orton 1, Vollmar 4, and Griley 3.

BY TELEGRAPH.

REPORTED FOR THE DAILY GAZETTE.

Last Night's Report.

FR. MONROE, Nov. 9.
Passengers by the Old Point boat say that the Richmond Enquirer of Friday afternoon contains a dispatch from Charleston, dated Wednesday, simply announcing that the federal troops had landed at two points, and were marching inland. Officers by the flag of truce refused all information, but the wheelman told a sailor that Beaufort was in possession of federal troops and the national flag flying from the court house. The reporter says—I have just learned from the flag of truce that our forces stormed and captured two forts at Beaufort.

Washington date says that the non-receipt of news from the naval expedition from rebel sources is considered at the navy department as evidence that a satisfactory result has been attained.

To-Day's Report.

(Reported Exclusively for the Daily Gazette.)

MORNING DESPATCHES.

MADISON, Nov. 11th.
The 11th regiment was to have left to-morrow, (Tuesday), but its departure is again postponed. Time not given.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 10.
Gen. Scott's staff have been assigned as follows:—Col. Cullum to the staff of Maj. Gen. Halleck, with the rank of brigadier general; Col. Van Rensselaer has succeeded Col. Scott as inspector general; Col. Hamilton on the staff of McClellan; Maj. Wright takes command of his regiment.

Among the recently appointed brigadier generals are Morgan of Ohio, and Colonel Phillips St. George Cook, who recently brought hither his cavalry troops from Utah. He is a native and appointed from Virginia.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 10.
Full returns of the Maryland election show that one rebel senator, and six delegates elected. The house stands 61 Union and six rebels. The senate stands 13 Union and eight rebels. Seven of the latter are of the number who held over and six of them represent strong Union counties.—Bradford's majority is about 30,000.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 9.
Herald's dispatch.—The government has issued permits to parties in Rhode Island to trade with loyalists on the southern coast. Vessels are fitted out for that purpose with supplies of various kinds, among which is salt, clothing and other articles of necessity which it is expected will be exchanged for cotton. This is a new feature of government policy and may lead to important results. Senator Simmons, of Rhode Island, has been the principal mover in this matter. It may be these vessels, and others now fitting out, will also follow the expedition, and as soon as an opening is made, a permanent footing obtained on the Carolina or Georgia, cargoes of salt, sugar and other points. This is a very important movement and has the full sanction of the government.

Major General Halleck has been assigned to the command of the department of the west, and General Buell to Kentucky.—The selection of Halleck was made at the suggestion of McClellan, and it cannot be long before the present condition of things in that state, under this able and experienced general, will assume a satisfactory condition.

World's dispatch.—Special orders have been issued directing the punishment of death to be visited on any soldier found sleeping on duty here in the city.

There is no little indignation felt here in official circles at the attempt of Gen. Fremont's friends to intimidate the government by the fabrication of dispatches, public and private, respecting the state of feeling in the western army, not warranted by facts. If the report which reached here be true, the government at one time had the alternative presented them of mutiny and dispersion of the western army, unless Gen. Fremont was retained in command. It has been found that Fremont's friends have been managing telegraph and newspaper correspondents in the camp. The friends of the St. Louis Republican is a prominent of the kind of most of the bogus dispatches, and it seems that he has been riding and living at the government expense for some time. It is said that he will be arrested.

Times dispatch.—Government has resolved to release on parole 250 prisoners, part of those captured at Hatteras, to proceed south on similar mission. If they succeed 250 Union prisoners now in the south will soon be returned to us, and the principle and manner of a full exchange of prisoners will be fully established.

The government is about to send money, clothing and comforts to Union prisoners in the south, if the confederates co-operate in the measure. An answer to such proposition will be had from Richmond in a few days.

Tribune's dispatch.—The government has contracted for the manufacture of a large number of the best Springfield rifled guns and also breech loading, to be made in this country. These, together with contracts authorized abroad for immediate use, will soon give a sufficient supply for all present and the future wants of the army.

Gen. Heintzelman, from the left wing of the army, confirms the report that the rebel troops are leaving the lower Potomac and moving southward, seemingly to South Carolina and Georgia, which is the looked for effect of a descent on the southern coast.

AFTERNOON DESPATCHES.

PORT MONROE, Nov. 10.
The steamship S. R. Spaulding arrived from Hatteras Inlet this forenoon with the 21st Indiana regiment. A tall deserter, who reached the Inlet in a small boat, stated the taking of two rebel forts at Port Royal, and the landing of a large federal force. Beaufort has also been taken by our troops. No particulars have arrived, but the facts correspond with those received from Norfolk by a flag of truce. Great excitement prevailed on the arrival of the news at Norfolk. From the same source we have a rumor that the road above Beaufort has fallen into the possession of our troops, with an immense quantity of stores.

Five deserters who reached Newport this morning, say the rebels up the James river are in consternation, and also bring the improbable rumor that our troops had advanced up the railroad as far as Charleston.

Scott was in company with the Union. The captain of the Union fears she was lost, having suddenly disappeared. Nothing is known concerning the rumored loss of the Ocean Express. There are rumors of three federal vessels having run ashore.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.
The Tribune's special from Fort Monroe states that the rebels had told the officers of the Albatross that two vessels of the fleet were ashore above Charleston, and others below Fort Mifflin. No names given. Lieut. Lowry, of the Spaulding, reports on Wednesday morning having heard heavy firing south of Hatteras, and news was received that the French war steamer Pons was on Ocracoke beach, and the gun boat Underwriter was sent to her, but could not get within three miles of her. At 11 o'clock the same day the French steamer was abandoned. This is another French steamer that had been in the neighborhood some time, but repelled all intercourse with our ships of war.

BALTIMORE, Nov. 11.
An officer of the 20th Indiana regiment from Hatteras Inlet, has arrived here and says he had a long conversation with the party who brought the news to Hatteras.—He was not a deserter, but a citizen and is a man of considerable intelligence, who had crossed the sound at the risk of his life to bring news to us. The officer reports that his conversation corresponds exactly with what has already been transmitted by telegraph. Outside of this statement there is a report that in taking Beaufort a large part of the town was burnt.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 11.
Special dispatches to the Inquirer, dated Fort Monroe, says that two fishing smacks took refuge under the guns of the Cumberland. The captains were Baltimoreans.—They reported they had been fishing in James river; when they left the report was current that Charleston had been attacked, and on Friday last several rebel regiments were sent south from James and York rivers. The embarkation took place in great haste. The shores of James river were almost deserted.

MONTREAL, Nov. 11.
The brig Deshaier, at Farther Point at 11 o'clock yesterday morning, signaled for a pilot and sent the following message ashore: No. 7th, picked up the North Briton's boat No. 2, with 17 of the crew and one passenger on board.

The North Briton is ashore on Mungan Island. These are all the particulars yet received, but full details will be obtained on the arrival of the brig at Quebec.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.
Col. Frank P. Blair leaves here to-day for Missouri to rejoin his regiment.

The Markets.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.
Floor without decided change; sales 9,000 bbls. 5.50a5.60 super western, 5.70a5.95 common to medium extra western. Wheat market a shade better; sales 9,000 bush. 1.22a1.25 Milwaukee club, 1.25a1.27 amber lower, 1.32a1.35 winter red western.

MILWAUKEE, Nov. 11.
Floor dull. Wheat dull and little doing; sales light at 73a74 No. one in store, 72a75 for No. 2 and 1 delivered.

HOW THE REBELS BOAST AND MANAGE.—The public have little conception of the wiles and artifices which a powerful and unscrupulous foe will resort to to carry out its purposes. The rebel leaders have so much at stake, and they know how to sell the false millions if they fall, that they resort to the most desperate expedients to accomplish the "foreign recognition" they are constantly promising to their obedient white slaves of the south.

A gentleman of his city had occasion recently to visit Montreal, and while there stopped at the Donegan Hotel. He found the house filled with jubilant secessionists, who loudly boasted that ere long France and England would recognize the confederate government, and that the recent increase of the English force in Canada was a part of the proposed programme. The gentleman in question, a prominent merchant in this city, being a foreigner and speaking with a slight accent, heard more of their plans than they would have been willing to divulge to one who was supposed to be a "Yankee and Lincolnite." To his surprise he found that a nephew of Beauregard's received letters from the general every two days, addressed to the president of the Bank of Montreal; others of the same kind received letters with equal regularity. He became well acquainted with Gen. Magruder, who, with his family, had passed into Canada without the slightest difficulty. There was one man there who was looked upon with suspicion by the southerners.

When the New Yorker reached Rouse's Point, on his return, this person politely informed him that he must search him, as he seemed to have been intimate with the southern rebels at Montreal. This official had kept a rebel lookout previously, might have discovered the rebel Magruder, who quietly left the cars before they reached the Point, and in company with an ex-governor of Rhode Island, rode off in a light wagon. Our informant met Magruder in this city and says that he boasted that their generals knew every plan of our cabinet, and no power under heaven could prevent them from getting all the details they wished. "We have our friends in all the departments at Washington, and we know how to keep them there."

Our informant is a man of decided intelligence, and his statements are worthy of trust. He says that the southerners in Montreal have abundance of money, have their families with them, and they get all the luxuries they want from this city.—They boast they can outbid the federal government in Europe, and that very large advances have been made by nominal British sympathizers, who long to see the republic torn up by the roots. They instanced the case of the Bermuda as an evidence of the successful entrance of such a vessel into the port of Savannah, and the great victory on the field to them. Much of this is mere boasting, but it has its effect.—N. Y. Evening Post.

NOT A GOOD PROPHECY.—The London Times is daily instructing its readers that the loyalists of the United States will find it impossible to conquer the rebels. This is in the old strain of the Times regarding this country. It constantly predicted the defeat of the U. S. army in the war with Mexico. On the 31st of August, 1848, it said in a leader on our Mexican war: "We have all along foreseen that the conduct of this war would present almost insuperable military difficulties, and that the cry of marching to Mexico, investing the principal cities, and occupying the country, was the mere dream of an ignorant populace. Without roads, without local supplies, with little water and a great deal of disease, the march of an American army into the heart of Mexico would lead to its destruction."

DEATH OF A WISCONSIN SOLDIER.—On Friday Private Buxton, Third Wisconsin Volunteers, wounded in the action at Harper's Ferry, died in the Wisconsin hospital, at Frederick, Maryland. A Minnie ball had entered the right shoulder, passed in front of the shoulder blade, and shattered one of the ribs near the spinal column, where its progress was checked.

Departure of the 10th Regiment.

To-day Wisconsin sends another first-class regiment to the seat of war. The 10th, Col. Chapin, left for Kentucky this forenoon. They number almost 1,000 men, and are equipped in the best of style throughout. The following is a complete list of the officers and companies:

COMMISSIONED STAFF.
Colonel—Alfred B. Chapin.
Lieut. Colonel—Joshua J. Guppy.
Major—John J. McMyran.
Adjutant—William A. Collins.
Quartermaster—Benton McConnell.
Surgeon—Solon Marks.
Assistant Surgeon—Robert Mitchell.
Second Asst. Surgeon—Jas. T. Reeves.
Non-commissioned staff.
Sergeant Major—Chester A. Bendick.
Drum Major—James E. Underwood.
Q. M. Sergeant—James S. White.
Commissary Sergt.—Robert L. Howell.
Leader of Band—Horace B. Loomis.

COMPANY ORGANIZATION.
Co. A—Walworth Co. Guards—Capt. Henry O. Johnson, 1st Lieut. Harris J. Harrington, 2d Lieut. Robert Harkness.
Co. B—Lyon Guards—Capt. Jacob W. Roby, 1st Lieut. James E. Adams, 2d Lieut. Samuel W. Herrick.
Co. C—Menasha Guards—Capt. Andrew J. Richardson, 1st Lieut. F. W. Perry, 2d Lieut. Samuel L. Hart.
Co. D—Fremont Rifles—Capt. O. E. Twogood, 1st Lieut. F. L. Kennan, 2d Lieut. George W. Marsh.
Co. E—Capt. John H. Ely, 1st Lieut. R. Kohledorf, 2d Lieut. G. M. West.
Co. F—Grant Co. Patriots—Capt. Wm. H. Palmer, 1st Lieut. Ed. D. Lowry, 2d Lieut. Amistad C. Brown, Jr.
Co. G—Jackson Co. Rifles—Capt. William Moore, 1st Lieut. L. B. Brewer, 2d Lieut. Silas A. Wilcox.
Co. H—Juneau Co. Rifles—Capt. Duncan McKuehn, 1st Lieut. Ingersoll George, 2d Lieut. R. H. Spencer.
Co. I—Grant Co. Sixth—Capt. Caleb F. Overton, 1st Lieut. Harvey Fairchild, 2d Lieut. John Small.
Co. K—Waupun Rifles—Capt. Edward Hyllyer, 1st Lieut. Leaman B. Hills, 2d Lieut. Chas. H. Ford.

They were escorted to the depot by officers of the 9th regiment, the American Band, the Milwaukee Light Infantry, a number of citizens on horseback, a detachment from the 9th regiment, and others. They made a splendid appearance as they passed through the city, and thousands manifested an intense interest in their departure, by appearing at windows and doors, crowding the sidewalks, and blocking up the side streets as they proceeded on their march.

The material superior to that of any regiment which has left the city. They go directly to Kentucky.—Wisconsin, of Saturday.

LOUISVILLE LADIES.—The loyal ladies of Louisville are organizing to provide winter comforts for the loyal soldiers of Kentucky. They have resolved that they accept the duty of providing for the comfort of the soldiers in the loyal camps of Kentucky, and that to the extent of their ability they will guard the champions of Kentucky and of the Union from the ills of winter and the diseases of camp by furnishing them with blankets, socks, and other means of warmth, and will supply sick soldiers with all they want, and entertain and instruct them with books, magazines and other reading matter. Kentucky ladies like these will never take the hands of traitors.

GEN. SCOTT'S PAY.—The current monthly pay, subsistence and allowance of Lieut. General Scott were, and by order of the President continued to be, while he is upon the retired list, as follows:

Pay, per month.....$270
Rations, per month.....360
Allowance for servants, per month.....90
Allowance for horses, per month.....50

Total.....$770
—which makes an annual income of $9,240.

In a speech made by John C. Breckinridge in the United States senate, on the occasion of moving from the old senate chamber to the new one, he said:—"Is there an American who will deride his country's laws, pervert her constitution, or alienate her people? If there be such a man, let his memory descend to posterity, laden with the execrations of all mankind!" There is such a man, and his name is John C. Breckinridge, and even as he hath spoken, so be it.

ALIBIATION.—The greatest triumph of English alibiation according to the London Quarterly is the following line, composed by a young lady in the year 1800, on the occasion of a gentleman planting a lane with lilacs:

Let lovely lilacs line Lee's lonely lane,
In which not only every word but every syllable begins with the same letter.

This kind of composition—"alibiation's artful aid"—is simple enough "when you get the hang of the school house." With leisure, we could string together entire gorges, and bucolics after the fashion of Lee's lovely, lispilised, lovely, lulling line. As for example:

Let lovely lilacs line Lee's lonely lane;
Rarest roses rearing round rich rows;
Graft green grass; group grapes green grapes;
Grass green grass; get gold gold; grain-graced globes;
Watch weeds; with wains wheel wheel when winds whiff whirr,
When winds westward wind with whirling wing.—Louisville Journal.

Enlistments in Rock County.

The following figures will show, very nearly, what Rock county has already done towards putting down the rebellion, in the way of enlistment of soldiers from among her citizens. Although the figures are partially estimates, they will be found to be nearly correct. It will be seen that twelve companies of infantry have been formed in this county besides one battery of artillery, viz:

Capt. Clark's Co., 1st Reg't,	180
"Ely's, 2d Reg't,	110
"Wheeler's, 5th Reg't,	100
"Northrop's, 6th Reg't,	100
"Condon's, 7th Reg't,	100
"Britton's, 8th Reg't,	85
"Ranger's, 13th Reg't,	110

The proportion of Wisconsin in the call for 500,000 men is 20,000. This being the case, Rock has already furnished more than her share. If the balance of the state had done as well as we have already done, there would be 31,000 troops in the federal army from Wisconsin. We feel no little pride in this result. It shows that Old Rock is foremost in the state in supporting the patriotic cause. But she has not yet done. Her sons are daily enlisting, and we have no doubt, if need be, she will furnish two thousand volunteers, who will do as good service as volunteers in the army of the republic. Yes, more than this—if the government will restore Fremont to his command and authorize him, in connection with Gen. Jim Lane, to clear the Mississippi valley of traitors, proclaiming freedom to the slaves of rebels, confiscating their property, and hanging every one who refuses to lay down his arms at a certain day, we have not a doubt that our country would add another regiment to the number.

LECTURE BY HON. D. S. DICKINSON.

The Hon. Daniel S. Dickinson will give a lecture this week in Milwaukee on the "State of the Country." He is willing to repeat it in two or three other places in the state if the people desire it and are ready to pay for it. Many of our citizens would undoubtedly be glad to hear him. More particular information can be obtained by applying at this office. Shall the effort be made to obtain him?

SURGEONS.—Commissions have been issued to G. W. Eastman, Platteville, as surgeon of the 16th regiment.

To Geo. F. Huntington, Portage City, as surgeon of the 18th regiment.

To Chas. H. Lord, Watertown, assistant surgeon of 1st cavalry.

INTERESTING EXERCISES.—The Sabbath school connected with the Congregational church of this city presented a scene of unusual interest yesterday. Several of their number have enlisted in the regiment, that is being organized in Rock and Green counties. The remaining members of the school, having respect to the associations of the past and to the probable wants of the soldiers, had prepared for them very neat and tasty dressing-cases, filled with such things as absence from home renders indispensable to a young man. These were presented to them yesterday. The presentation was made in the presence of a large number of the congregation, and of the Presbyterian sabbath school, which came over to enjoy the scene, with songs by the school, and recitations and declamations by the juveniles, accompanied by brief remarks from the pastor of the church. The young gentlemen receiving the gifts responded well and briefly.

It was a very pleasant occasion, and one to be remembered by all who were present.

The Soldiers' Aid Society will meet at Mrs. Almira Clark's (west side) on Tuesday, Nov. 12th, at one o'clock P. M.

The "Mite Society" at the same place in the evening. MARIA F. CLARK, Secretary.

COMING HOME.—The Rocky Mountain News of the 29th says:—"By this morning's coach, Prof. Amaden and Ned Powers took their departure for the states, to remain a couple of months. Our Janesville friends will be glad to see them. Mark is 'King bee' among the sign writers and fancy painters of this region, and he leaves some enduring specimens of his skill and taste scattered throughout Denver. We wish the boys a pleasant journey, a good time and a safe return."

Mark and Ned gratified their friends here this morning by a sight of their cheerful countenances. They look as if they had fared well, and just now are "flourishing" extensively.

FINE ARTS.—We would recommend our friends and readers to pay a visit to the new exhibition of engravings in Myers' block, next to McKee's. Among the collection will be found many pleasing subjects of art. The gallery will be sold at auction on Wednesday evening next. See advertisement.

MURDER OF O. J. WRIGHT.—Suspicion exists against the wife of Mr. Wright and a man named Brannen. They have been held for examination by the grand jury.

Ready Made Clothing

Col. Russell, Mr. Powell, editor of the Brothhead Reporter, has been to Washington, and visited the 3d regiment at Frederick, Md. Of Col. Rager, he says: "The 3d is encamped near to the city on an excellent camping ground. They are in a good state of discipline. Colonel Rager, of Janesville, is a thorough soldier, and a kind, efficient and exemplary man. He is a model for every colonel to pattern after. He is neither profane or intemperate, and his example has the effect to temper those who under different influences would be reckless. He has won the respect of the best citizens in Frederick, and has their co-operation. Treasonary are becoming scarce within the sphere of his action."

We notice that a Sanitary Commission has been organized in Chicago for the northwest. From the manner of its introduction to its organ, we think it is intended more to give currency to slanders against Gen. Fremont, than to relieve sick and wounded soldiers. The best thing our people can do is to apply their donations to our own soldiers as far as possible, through societies of their own, and to rely upon Mr. Reid and his lady to distribute their charities at St. Louis, who have authority from the government for this purpose.

ASSISTANT SURGEONS.—Elisha Horton of Whitewater and S. L. Loyd of Edgerton have been appointed assistant surgeons of the 13th regiment.

C. G. Russell is commissioned 1st Lieutenant, and appointed quartermaster of 2d regiment Wisconsin cavalry.

Christopher Petterson reports 50 men at board and quarters at Black Earth, for the Scandinavian regiment.

COL. COBB.—The numerous friends of Col. Amasa Cobb, of the 5th regiment, will be gratified to learn that he has fully recovered from his late severe sickness, and is once more on duty, in command of his regiment.

FREE LUNCH DAILY.—G. Fritz will hereafter give a free lunch, containing good oyster soup, to his friends and customers, every morning, at his saloon on the east side of Main street, from ten till twelve o'clock. We think the public can hardly refrain from accepting very generally so liberal an offer.

COMPANIES ALL IN.—The last company of the 13th regiment came in Saturday evening, and went into camp. Several, or all of the companies, will require some filling up to make the maximum number.

About thirty Parrot guns are turned out at the West Point foundry now per week. Four hundred and fifty men are employed in the manufacture of these guns, as also in forming projectiles.

Four individuals, three saddlers and an oysterman, were recently sentenced to six months in the workhouse at New Orleans, by the mayor, because they were "political" if not morally dangerous and suspicious.

During the last three months, 12,400 tons of provisions have been shipped from New York to Washington in steam transports. This is exclusive of the amount carried in sailing vessels.

ELECTION ITEMS.—Green Lake county is reported by the Berlin Courier at about 350 majority for Harvey. It gave Randall 791.

The Prescott Journal says the majority on the Union state ticket, in Pierce county, is over 400. It was 201 for Randall.

The Manitowish Herald, of the 7th, thinks the Union state ticket has a majority in Manitowish county.

The Elkhorn Independent puts Harvey's majority at only 708 in Walworth county.

THE ELEVENTH REGIMENT.—The report from Madison this morning is that the time of the departure of the 11th regiment is uncertain. It will be safe to expect it here when it arrives.

IMMENSE SHIPMENTS.—The shipments from Milwaukee for the twenty-four hours ending Saturday afternoon at six o'clock, reached the enormous aggregate of two hundred and fifty thousand bushels. This is the largest amount ever shipped in one day, from that port.

The potato rot is causing sad havoc in many localities in western New York.—Near Fredonia it has reduced the very large crop probably one-half. At Rochester the best sorts of potatoes show signs of decay, and are taken at a risk to buyers.

War Supplies!

The Chicago Evening Journal will be for sale regularly every morning.

Camp Treadway Paper and Envelopes, in great variety of styles. Also Camp Barlow Paper and Envelopes, with appropriate embellishments.

Infantry and Cavalry Tactics, Army Regulations, Manuals for Officers constantly on hand. Also, Blank Books for Regiments and Officers, manufactured with neatness and dispatch.

Remember, No. 9 Main street is the place to buy everything in the News, Stationery and Book line, cheap. O. J. DEARBORN.
